Professional Learning Model

We design our courses to elevate professional growth and impact, which are the heart of our framework. Teaching Channel recognizes the learning process as an ongoing cycle characterized by the following key phases:

ELEVATE Your Impact

Embark on a transformative learning experience where reflection, exploration, and innovation intersect to shape your professional practice.

ELEVATE courses provide a dynamic balance of knowledge-building and skill-building opportunities, followed by practical application and integration into your professional practice. Each self-paced course features research-based materials, video clips, and interactive elements to enhance and support learning.

- Activate prior knowledge in order to establish new learning goals
- Access research-based resources and materials to deepen your understanding and broaden your skillset.
- Participate in a variety of assignments that encourage the implementation of new learning in your classroom or school setting.
- Research solutions to challenges, answer lingering questions, or explore additional topics that spark your curiosity.
- Assess professional growth, and consider the potential impact of newfound knowledge and skills.
- Engage in student-to-student interaction in a discussion forum as well as teacher-to-student individual feedback.

Continuous Improvement

Each course is reviewed annually, informed by participant feedback, current research available on the topic, insights from our University Partners, and new opportunities to show learning through implementation.

Course Development and Evaluation

ELEVATE courses are created and evaluated by educators with a master's degree or higher in an education-related field and five or more years of classroom experience in PreK-12 education. Course evaluators provide personalized, specific feedback for submitted assignments and rubric-based grading aligned with best practices in professional education.

**Per standard practice in the field, each course credit carries the equivalent of fifteen hours of content and coursework. To receive credit, participants must complete all requirements according to expectations outlined in the course rubrics.

Course Description

As we continue to learn more about children and their mental health needs, anxiety remains a challenge for students everywhere. This course shares information about the multifaceted aspects of student anxiety, including the role of the brain, impacts of social media on student mental health, and considerations for discussing anxiety with students. You'll learn about accommodations and modifications for students with anxiety, and connect it to rising school absenteeism challenges. Boost your toolbox with a variety of strategies proven to be successful for students with anxiety, including mindfulness practices, awareness and grounding techniques, and the cognitive behavior therapy (CBT) Triangle. At the end, you will be prepared to share information with colleagues and support students struggling with anxiety through sure-fire strategies learned in the course. You can make a positive impact by understanding the whats, hows, and whys of anxiety.

Course Objectives

1. Use provided prompts specific to anxiety in young people, to describe assumptions and insights of practitioners, researchers and self, including how the information relates to professional educational practice.
2. Explain the role of the brain in anxiety disorders.
3. Summarize how the impacts of social media include anxiety and mental health challenges.
4. Describe strategies for students to mitigate anxiety.
5. Develop a plan or guidebook to share information about anxiety.
6. Reflect on professional growth and articulate how learning from this course focused on understanding anxiety for student well-being will impact students and the broader educational community.

Course Materials

This course does not use a textbook. All required articles and resources are linked within the course modules.

Important! Courses are completed 100% online within the learning management system. You should have access to a compatible web browser (such as Google Chrome, Microsoft Edge, Apple Safari, and/or Mozilla Firefox) and a word processing tool (such as Microsoft Word and/or Google Docs). While our course platform does support mobile devices, for the best user experience, we recommend using a desktop or laptop computer to complete courses.

Course Delivery

All coursework will be completed and submitted online within the learning management system. Log-in to your account at www.teachingchannel.com to access your online course and view additional details of each assignment.

- Explore a variety of educational resources, videos, and additional tools necessary for successful course completion.
- Complete modules including journaling, progress check assessments, and written response, that facilitate opportunities to apply strategies and reflect on new learning.
- Participate in our discussion forum to share insights and learn from peers.
- All modules and activities within the courses are required. You will complete and submit (if applicable) each module separately for evaluation in the online course.
- Your course evaluator will review your work using the criteria outlined in the rubric.

Grading & Feedback

Fast Track courses include formative Progress Check Assessments at the conclusion of Modules 1 and 2. A passing grade of 80% or higher is required, however, you are provided multiple attempts, if needed.

For Module 3, you will submit comprehensive written responses. We use a rubric-based grading system to provide detailed feedback and ensure fair assessment. Once you've submitted your Module 3 coursework, your evaluator will review your work and provide personalized, written feedback within 7 days of submission. Each assignment within the module is evaluated based on the detailed holistic rubric criteria defined below. Your grade for the module is determined as follows:

- A Grade: If the majority of assignments within a module meet the "Above Target Expectations" criteria, demonstrating exceptional understanding and application of the concepts, you will earn an "A" for that module.
- B Grade: If the majority of assignments within a module meet the "At Target Expectations" criteria, showcasing a solid understanding and application of the concepts, you will earn a "B" for that module.
  - Example: If a module has 5 graded assignments, you would need at least 3 to meet the "Above Target Expectations" criteria to earn an 'A' for the module.
- Resubmission: If any assignment is missing required components or doesn't meet minimum expectations, it will be marked "Below Target Expectations." You'll receive detailed feedback and have the opportunity to revise and resubmit for full credit.
- Re-grading: Once a module grade has been issued, coursework will not be re-evaluated.
- Final Course Grade: Each module must be completed to enable a final grade to post. For Modules 1 and 2, a Progress Check grade of 80% or higher must be recorded. These grades are not factored into the final course grade. Your final course grade will be earned by your written submission for Module 3.

Collaboration

Collaboration is a key component of the learning experience, designed to promote a supportive and inclusive learning environment where diverse perspectives are valued and respected. Teaching Channel asks learners to interact with their peers through discussions, participate with colleagues in collaborative assignments, and engage with embedded tech tools. Additionally, learners interact with the credentialed course evaluator who provides personalized feedback on assignments.

Academic Integrity

While collaboration is encouraged, each learner must complete their own assignments and assessments individually, ensuring the integrity and originality of their work. Any instances of academic dishonesty, including plagiarism or unauthorized sharing of work, will be addressed in accordance with Teaching Channel's Collaboration and Plagiarism Policy.

Artificial Intelligence

We recognize that artificial intelligence (AI) is an emerging and evolving technology that is embedded into many aspects of our personal and professional lives. Just as with other emerging technologies, we embrace the benefits it can provide for teachers, such as enhancing efficiencies for teacher planning, designing differentiated materials, and assisting as a thought partner. However, we encourage the educator community to stay mindful that the material generated by these programs may be inaccurate, incomplete, or otherwise problematic.

Please use the following guidelines if completing your work with the assistance of AI:

- Consider AI as a collaborator and use your preferred tool(s) to generate ideas that enhance your learning and creativity.
- Modify any AI generated output to make it your own (e.g. applicable to your audience, differentiated for unique student needs, relevant to your educational environment) and to meet course requirements.
- To the best of your ability, verify the AI generated coursework you are submitting is accurate and without bias.

Course Outline

Module 1

Identify your motivations and goals for the course, then assess prior knowledge and experiences you bring with you. Review foundational resources to better understand how anxiety impacts teaching and learning, and ways in which they can be integrated into the classroom.

Outcomes:

Participants will be able to:

1. Differentiate between normal nervousness and anxiety disorders by recognizing the physiological and behavioral signs of anxiety in students.
Explore how anxiety affects students' academic performance, behavior, and overall well-being, including its connection to physical symptoms and the role of social media in mental health.

2. Develop effective communication strategies for discussing anxiety and mental health with students, colleagues, and families while creating a safe and stigma-free classroom atmosphere.
3. Identify and apply appropriate accommodations and modifications to help students with anxiety succeed academically and maintain their emotional well-being
4. Apply the Keep-Stop-Start framework to refine current teaching practices, and develop a plan for professional growth.

Assignments

- 1.1 Activate Your Learning
- 1.2 Investigate and Respond: Understanding Anxiety
- 1.3 Social Media and Mental Health
- 1.4 Discussing Anxiety
- 1.5 IEPs, Accommodations, and Modifications
- 1.6 Keep-Stop-Start

Module 2

This module focuses on equipping educators with strategies to support students experiencing school anxiety, particularly social anxiety and test anxiety. It explores the connection between anxiety, school avoidance, and mental health, emphasizing the importance of coping mechanisms and mindfulness practices. The module also introduces Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT) and Exposure Therapy (ET) as potential treatment approaches, highlighting how elements of CBT can be integrated into the classroom to help students manage anxiety.

Outcomes:

Participants will be able to:

1. Identify the signs of school-related anxiety, including social anxiety and test anxiety, to better support students' mental health needs.
2. Develop and apply calming techniques, coping strategies, and mindfulness practices to help students regulate emotions and reduce anxiety in the classroom.
3. Explore the basic principles of Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT) and Exposure Therapy (ET), and explore how elements of CBT can be used to support students experiencing anxiety.
4. Build a classroom atmosphere that prioritizes emotional well-being, reduces stigma, and provides a safe space for students struggling with anxiety.
5. Apply the Keep-Stop-Start framework to refine current teaching practices, and develop a plan for professional growth.

Assignments

- 2.1 School Anxiety
- 2.2 Coping Strategies
- 2.3 Mindfulness
- 2.4 Cognitive Behavioral Therapy
- 2.5 Keep-Stop-Start

Module 3

This module explores the impact of anxiety on students and provides educators with strategies to support them. Participants will learn to recognize signs and symptoms of anxiety, differentiate between anxiety and nervousness, and understand its connection to physical ailments and behavioral challenges. The module emphasizes the importance of open communication and reducing stigma around anxiety. It also provides practical strategies, including CBT and ET techniques, to help students manage anxiety and improve their well-being.

Outcomes:

Participants will be able to:

1. Identify and recognize various types of anxiety and how they present in students.
2. Implement calming techniques, coping strategies, and cognitive-behavioral approaches to help students manage anxiety.

3. Create a classroom atmosphere that reduces stigma, promotes emotional well-being, and supports students with anxiety.
4. Effectively communicate with students, families, and colleagues about anxiety, its impact, and strategies for support.
5. Evaluate teaching strategies and routines by finalizing the Keep-Stop-Start document, justifying your choices with detailed explanations.
